

Italy Joins in Request to China.
PEKING, Nov. 12.—Charge d'Affaires Vero of the Italian Legation visited the Foreign Office to-day and seconded the request of Japan, Great Britain and France that the establishment of a monarchy be postponed.

TRY THIS FOR A COLD—IT'S FINE!

"Pape's Cold Compound" ends severe colds or grippe in few hours.

You can end grippe and break up a severe cold either in head, chest, body or limbs, by taking a dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until three doses are taken. It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness. Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffing! Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.—Adv't.

YOUNG WOMAN SEIZED IN STREET, ROBBED OF HAT, COAT AND PURSE

Dragged Into Hallway by Four Men, She Says—Policeman Arrests Two.

Mistaking her street while coming home from a party early to-day, Mrs. Helen N. Veasey, twenty-three, formerly a moving picture actress, was seized by four men in front of No. 516 West One Hundred and Twenty-sixth Street, dragged into a hallway, attacked and robbed. The robbers took her hat and coat, as well as her pocketbook. In Harlem Court this morning two men captured in the hallway by Policemen Prall and McGann were arraigned. They described themselves as Martin J. Needham, twenty-six, a sailor, of No. 337 East Thirty-eighth Street, and Walter Coleman, nineteen, an elevator operator, of No.

760 Park Street. The latter is a fictitious address. Both men said they ran into the hallway in response to the woman's cries. The policemen heard the commotion and ran into the hallway. He says two of the woman's assailants fled over the roofs and escaped. He arrested Needham and Coleman at the point of a revolver. Mrs. Veasey, who was unable to identify either of the men arrested, gave her address as No. 258 West One Hundred and Twenty-first Street, and said she was the wife of a travelling salesman. She had been to a party with some moving picture friends, and there had been a drink or two around, she admitted, which might have accounted for her missing her street. She was attended at the Knickerbocker Hospital and held at the West One Hundred and Twenty-third Street station.

MEXICO STOPS BULL FIGHT.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Bull fights are going out in Mexico and the feminist movement is coming in. The Carranza agency here announces that Governor Molina has issued a decree prohibiting bull fights, chicken fights and games of chance as immoral and degrading. How the City of Mexico will take this is problematical. The same agency states that the women of Tuxatlan have been called by Governor Alvarado to meet in Merida and discuss the advancement of women, the home and how the Government may help. Such a meeting has never before been called in Mexico.

COMMITTEE ON PEACE ENCOURAGED BY TAFT

President Lowell and Other Americans Show Interest in Coming Congress at Berne.

Berne, Switzerland, Nov. 12 (via Paris).—The committee which is meeting here to organize a congress to study and determine bases of durable peace announces that it is receiving considerable support from neutral countries, especially the United States. It is stated that expressions of interest have been received from former President Taft, President Lowell of Harvard, Prof. William L. U. Hull of Swarthmore, Pa., and John Barrett. A large delegation is expected from America to attend the congress, which will open Dec. 14, and it is said subscriptions totalling $1,500 have been received from the United States to help defray the expenses.

Notes Ambulance in Honor of Miss Cavell.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—A hospital

motor ambulance costing $5,000 will be presented to the British army by the British Empire Association of Chicago as a memorial to the late Miss Edith Cavell, the nurse recently shot at Brussels by the Germans, it was announced to-day.

Simple Way To End Dandruff

There's one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Adv't.

THE WANAMAKER CORSET SALONS

This Year's Fashions Show the Figure

What will they show about yours? Will they show a prettily rounded waist and slim, straight hips? They will if you are

L. R. Corseted

L. R. Corsets are famous for their individuality. You could not go into a corset maker's and have designed to your order any corsets that would suit you so perfectly as the L. R. Corset you would buy in the Wanamaker Corset Salons. More than sixty different models built for every type of figure from the young girls' first corset to the light, "easy" corsets for elderly women. Professional singers and dancers like the L. R. Singers and Dancers' Corsets. Everybody likes the athletic L. R., the Perfect Fitting L. R., the Miniature Waist L. R., the 1916 L. R. and all the rest of the Gallery of L. R.'s. Prices $1 to $12.50. Third Floor, Old Building.

A Thousand Coats for Women --- New, Specially Priced, $15, $25, $35, $38.50

For the first time this season women may have on Saturday, coats at $25, $35 and $38.50, made of the same quality of duvetyne which goes into our coats at $67.50 and more; the finest duvetyne made in America.

Indeed, Saturday will be the first offering of any of the thousand coats at the prices we have put upon them.

There are 16 models in the four groups; but there are also many variations in the kind of fur and the use of it. The coats are of varying length; belts are at sides, back, or all around; pockets are inside or outside, according to the material and model. All have the deep-collared narrow shoulder effect with rippling side flare to skirt, some with exquisitely long waistlines.

MATERIALS—broadcloth and duvetyne, richly trimmed with beaver, skunk, skunk-dyed—raccoon or skunk-dyed opossum, at $38.50; duvetyne, with skunk, beaver, Hudson seal (dyed muskrat) and skunk-dyed opossum, at $35; plain duvetyne and skunk-dyed opossum trimmed broadcloth, at $25. Imported British tweeds, fur cloths and corduroy velvet, at $15. The duvetynes are in black and deep blues, greens and amethysts.

578 Women's Suits, $15, $19.50, $25, $29.50, $37.50

Newly in; early season prices were half as much again. Whipcoats, gabardines, broadcloths, velours-de-laine, velveteens, corduroys; black and colors: tailleures simples and richly fur-trimmed.

235 Afternoon and Evening Dresses

Just arrived in time for Saturday to join a group of 300—making 535 dresses in all for choice—at $12.75, $19.50, $25 and $48.50.

The $12.75 dresses are all for street and afternoon wear. The other three groups include both afternoon and evening dresses. For the street—serges, satins, crepe Georgette, velvet, plain and in clever combinations. For dinner and dance—lovely taffetas, net and chiffon combinations, jets and spangles; a radiant group.

Saturday, The Gallery of Fashions, Second floor, Old Building.

These $5 Blouses Are Made of $1.85 to $3.50 Yd. Silks

Just how fine must a $5 blouse be to come to the Wanamaker Blouse Shop? Let us analyze these new arrivals for the week-end and see.

The Satin Plaid Crepe de Chine

In this very simply tailored blouse would cost $3 to $3.50 yard, says the silk expert. At least two yards would be required. The blouse complete is $5.

The Novelty Striped Crepe

In this high-collared blouse with Georgette crepe frill would cost retail $2.50 to $3 yard. Again our authority is the silk expert.

The Taffeta

In this eyelet embroidered blouse, an adaptation of a French model, is a Swiss silk that would cost retail at least $2 a yard.

This Double Revers Crepe de Chine Blouse is of $1.85 or $2 quality—and it is hand-embroidered.

The Embroidered Net

In this graceful, delicate lace blouse draped over flesh color chiffon is of $1.50 grade and the blouse would require at least three yards. Third floor, Old Building.

Burlington Arcade floor, New Bldg.

This Is the Greatest of All Sales for Young Women

It started with 6,000 brand-new coats, suits, dresses and skirts, fresh from the tailors' hands.

These tailors for more than six weeks worked only for the Wanamaker Young Women's Stores, because we insisted that each garment be made

- from the cloths chosen by our fabric expert;
- in the colors and styles selected by our fashion expert;
- according to our own specifications.

The furs, too, were bought before the rise in prices, so that the fur-trimmed coats could not be duplicated in any quantity today to sell for so little.

The Prices Are a Full Third Below Regular—or Less

Tailored Suits, $15 to $22.50

All lined with peau de cygne and interlined with flannel. At $15—Corduroy suits, fur-trimmed. At $16.50—Belted wool poplin suits, nutria trimmings. At $18.75—Gabardine suits, fur-trimmed. At $22.50—Three smart models in broadcloth or gabardine, trimmed with fur or plush.

Fur-Trimmed Coats, $15 to $38.50

At $15—Several styles in plaid wool plush or zibeline. Many fur trimmed. At $16.50—Fur trimmed coats of fine Zibeline. At $18.75—Coats of wool plush or zibeline with fur collars. At $22.50—Wool velours coats, fur-trimmed. At $25—Two models of thick wool plush in street and afternoon shades, fur-trimmed and lined throughout with silk. At $29.50—Coats of imported corduroy beautifully lined and interlined. Full collar of selected fur. At $38.50—Evening, afternoon and street coats of black salette plush charmingly lined and trimmed with fur.
